Re: Discipline imposed in California

Honorable Clerks of Court:

With this letter I have included correspondence that I sent to the Texas Board of Disciplinary Appeals regarding discipline imposed in California. As explained therein, I have now been prosecuted and/or disciplined three times for the same events, all of which occurred in 2012 or earlier. Despite written notice, no federal court has reciprocated the discipline first imposed by Texas and then by D.C.

Please let me know in advance if any of your respective courts intends to impose reciprocal discipline based on the outcome in California, as I wish to challenge any further discipline based on these events. At some point, I hope to move past the events that happened nearly ten years ago.

Thank you for your consideration.

Respectfully,

Ty Clevenger
